Selection For Fourth Place Not Yet Decided—Race Is Predicted.

Final trials for the relay team which will meet Harvard at the Coast this spring have been held, and the squad has been cut to six men. Gushing, Reid, Colleary, O'Hara, Brook and Dean have been retained and the team will run Saturday night will be selected from these men. Gushing, Colleary and Reid are sure of running, but the fourth place is still in doubt.

Brook, Dean and O'Hara were all very close in times in the trials, and Coach Kasady is not yet willing to announce his final choice. Although Brook was fifth in a second heat for the distance in his trial, it is thought that O'Hara will be the final choice for the place. Owing to a death in his family the old B. A. star was unable to do any running during the fall and has been slow getting into condition. He has cond.

MR. CARB OFF TO WAR

Institute Instructor To Join Ambulance Corps.

Mr. David Carb of the Institute English Department has been given a half-year's leave of absence, and is planning to go overseas to the European battlefields. Mr. Carb will act there in connection with the American Ambulance Corps. He is looking forward eagerly to the novel experiences of the theatre of war, and will have an unusual opportunity to obtain dramatic material.

Mr. Carb came to the Institute after his graduation from Harvard, where he was given his A.B. degree. At the Institute he has won great popularity among the student body, as well as considerable reputation as a dramatic critic. He has written several plays.

SENIORS

Appointments for Senior Portfolio pictures must be made immediately. It is impossible for the committee to consult each individual in the short space of time that remains, so every man who has not had a sitting and who considers himself in the Class of 1915, is requested to get an appointment from C. W. Wood, W. B. Spencer or C. M. Rumels in the Union, Wednesday or Thursday between 1:30 and 2:00.

There is absolutely no charge for sitting and the taking of the picture does not require over ten minutes. Four hundred pictures have to be taken and everybody cannot be at it.
