RELAY TEAM FINISHES SECOND TO CORNELL

Pennsylvania Team Defeated In 3000-Yard Race - Fast Time Made.

The first indoor Intercollegiate Meet ever held, took place at Madison Square Garden in New York last Saturday night. Most of the Eastern colleges were represented, and beside the various relay races, field events were held. The Technology team, composed of C. T. Goethien, L. J. Allan, P. L. Cook and R. O. Brown, ran the 8000-yard race in which each man runs 2000 yards in first place. The Technology and University of Pennsylvania teams appeared very closely matched, and from the start of the race the light for second place was between these two. The Pennsylvanians ran up a great battle, but the work of the Tech men was of very high caliber, and they crossed the line second to Cornell.

The time of the race was exceptionally fast, Cornell covering the distance in 21 minutes, 15.5 seconds.

ANDOVER VICTORIOUS

Freshmen Strong In Track, Weak In Field Events.

Andover easily defeated the freshmen in a dual track meet on Saturday afternoon 4:12 to 23:12. Kwan and Justhafen were the only freshmen to pass the starting line. The summary:

Fifty-yard dash—Won by Kwan, M. I. T.; second, Guppy, Andover; third, Avery, M. I. T.; Time—5s. 4s.

Fifty-yard hurdles—Won by Rodman, Andover; second, Guarvich, M. I. T.; Time—7s. 5s.

Six hundred-yard run—Won by Charlton, Andover; second, Coward, M. I. T.; third, Cobb, Andover; Time—1m. 18s.

Fifty-yard low hurdles—Won by Rodman, Andover; second, Guarnich, M. I. T.; Time—5s. 6s.

Mile run—Won by McClarton, Andover; second, Eagle, M. I. T.; third, Groene, Andover. Time—4m. 5s. 4s.

High jump—Won by Ames, Andover; St., 51. 2s.; second, Soroush, M. I. T. (Continued on Page Two)

CHAS. D. HURRY WILL SPEAK NEXT THURSDAY

Prominent Expert To Address Cosmopolitan Club and Give The T. C. A. Talk.

Mr. Chas. D. Hurry, General Secretary of the Student Christian Associations of North America, has been secured by the T. C. A. for March 11. Mr. Hurry has had an opportunity to know college men all over the world. After his graduation from the University of Michigan he became the Student Christian Secretary in the Middle West. He then began the supervision and organization of associations in South America, visiting practically every institution in that continent. For several years he has been at the head of the Associations in North America.

Mr. Hurry comes here from giving a series of talks at the Worcester Polytechnic Institute and goes from here to the Massachusetts Agricultural College for a similar series. Last year his talks at Dartmouth brought out a total attendance of 4199.

CHEMICAL SOCIETY

Mr. George B. Gallup Speaks On Advertising.

Mr. George B. Gallup, New England representative of the Cosmopolitan Magazine, member of the Chamber of Commerce’s City Planning Commission, and a member of the Tech men was of very high caliber, and they crossed the line second to Cornell.

Mr. Gallup said that after the war European nations will rehabilitate quickly and that their ravaged industries will push those of this country rather hard. New England industries, especially, due to their conservatism, will be in danger. This danger can be averted by wise advertising. Mr. Gallup spoke at length of advertising, how it can be used as an aid to industry and of its value in presenting new inventions to the public. He also spoke of the advertising profession and the training it gave one in the proper use of words.

EXENTER MEN

Will all former Exenter men now attending the Institute, please leave their names, list of activities, societies to which they belong, etc., at the Cage of Neal E. Tourtellotte by Wednesday evening. This data will be published in the special Alumni issue of the Exonian.

CLASS-DAY COMMITTEE SETTLES CONTROVERSY

Creation Of New Office Solves Problem To Satisfaction Of All Concerned.

The Senior Class-Day Committee opened its meeting Friday morning by unanimously passing a motion declaring null and void all business transacted by the Committee. Class President Ralston took the chair, and outlined to the members a plan suggested by W. S. Thomas for settling the controversy to the satisfaction of all. This plan recognized the irreconcilable views as to the First Marshal’s position being primarily one of honor or of responsibility. It provided for making the Mashalship a purely honorary office, and creating the new position of Chairman of the Committee, carrying with it the responsibility of leadership as well as the work to be done.

This plan having been discussed favorably by men of both former factions, a motion was made and unanimously passed creating the office of Chairman of the Committee. C. B. Quirk was then nominated and unanimously elected to the office, and proceeded to take the chair.

A motion was then made and unanimously passed that the three men receiving the highest vote for the Committee be elected First, Second and Third Marshals in order.

There was an address by F. R. Ibbott, and Spence. Mr. Chas. D. Hurrey, General Secretary of the Student Christian Associations of North America, has been secured by the T. C. A. for March 11. Mr. Hurry has had an opportunity to know college men all over the world. After his graduation from the University of Michigan he became the Student Christian Secretary in the Middle West. He then began the supervision and organization of associations in South America, visiting practically every institution in that continent. For several years he has been at the head of the Associations in North America.

Mr. Hurry comes here from giving a series of talks at the Worcester Polytechnic Institute and goes from here to the Massachusetts Agricultural College for a similar series. Last year his talks at Dartmouth brought out a total attendance of 4199.

Mr. George B. Gallup said that after the war European nations will rehabilitate quickly and that their ravaged industries will push those of this country rather hard. New England industries, especially, due to their conservatism, will be in danger. This danger can be averted by wise advertising.

Mr. Gallup spoke at length of advertising, how it can be used as an aid to industry and of its value in presenting new inventions to the public. He also spoke of the advertising profession and the training it gave one in the proper use of words.

EXENTER MEN

Will all former Exenter men now attending the Institute, please leave their names, list of activities, societies to which they belong, etc., at the Cage of Neal E. Tourtellotte by Wednesday evening. This data will be published in the special Alumni issue of the Exonian.

CLASS-DAY COMMITTEE SETTLES CONTROVERSY

Creation Of New Office Solves Problem To Satisfaction Of All Concerned.

The Senior Class-Day Committee opened its meeting Friday morning by unanimously passing a motion declaring null and void all business transacted by the Committee. Class President Ralston took the chair, and outlined to the members a plan suggested by W. S. Thomas for settling the controversy to the satisfaction of all. This plan recognized the irreconcilable views as to the First Marshal’s position being primarily one of honor or of responsibility. It provided for making the Mashalship a purely honorary office, and creating the new position of Chairman of the Committee, carrying with it the responsibility of leadership as well as the work to be done.

This plan having been discussed favorably by men of both former factions, a motion was made and unanimously passed creating the office of Chairman of the Committee. C. B. Quirk was then nominated and unanimously elected to the office, and proceeded to take the chair.

A motion was then made and unanimously passed that the three men receiving the highest vote for the Committee be elected First, Second and Third Marshals in order.

There was an address by F. R. Ibbott, and Spence. Mr. Chas. D. Hurrey, General Secretary of the Student Christian Associations of North America, has been secured by the T. C. A. for March 11. Mr. Hurry has had an opportunity to know college men all over the world. After his graduation from the University of Michigan he became the Student Christian Secretary in the Middle West. He then began the supervision and organization of associations in South America, visiting practically every institution in that continent. For several years he has been at the head of the Associations in North America.

Mr. Hurry comes here from giving a series of talks at the Worcester Polytechnic Institute and goes from here to the Massachusetts Agricultural College for a similar series. Last year his talks at Dartmouth brought out a total attendance of 4199.

Mr. George B. Gallup said that after the war European nations will rehabilitate quickly and that their ravaged industries will push those of this country rather hard. New England industries, especially, due to their conservatism, will be in danger. This danger can be averted by wise advertising.

Mr. Gallup spoke at length of advertising, how it can be used as an aid to industry and of its value in presenting new inventions to the public. He also spoke of the advertising profession and the training it gave one in the proper use of words.

EXENTER MEN

Will all former Exenter men now attending the Institute, please leave their names, list of activities, societies to which they belong, etc., at the Cage of Neal E. Tourtellotte by Wednesday evening. This data will be published in the special Alumni issue of the Exonian.