INSTITUTE MEN ARE SUSPECTED AS SPIES

British Officials At Halifax On Trail Of Unsuspecting Engineers.

That the Canadian "spy fever" has not abated was shown by the series of incidents at the Institute the other day when a telegram was received from Halifax which read: "Are one of your professors and two students at present in Nova Scotia, searching for gold quartz?" It was signed by the Fortress Intelligence Officer. Upon being referred to the molding department, it was found that Professor E. Bugbee was really in Nova Scotia, that he had two students with him, and that he was there for the purpose of testing out a gold mine. The suspicion arose when the local idea of the wharf at Halifax asked the railway officials if there was really a gold mine at Vogler's Cove, the destination of the party, and then notified the Fortress authorities. Investigations ensued, which went to show the constant vigilance of the authorities at all points; but, upon receipt of the return telegram from the Institute, the surveillance was of course stopped.

Since that time Professor Bugbee has been trying to explain what there is in his appearance that turned him into a suspect. It has been suggested that the obvious keenness of Technology professors made the Nova Scotians think he was a sort of Sherlock Holmes, come to ferret out their secrets.

When the war broke out last fall Mr. Swope was abroad and it is expected that he will probably come about the 24th. A ticket for the return telegram to the Institute the other day and that which he gained while an undergraduate, will enable this line and that which he gained while an undergraduate, will enable

On Thursday, at 12:30 p. m. in the Union, Mr. Charles D. Hurrey will speak on "The Tragedy of Student Life." Since his graduation from the University of Michigan, Mr. Hurrey has made an extensive tour, visiting the colleges and universities of the middle west and also the prominent ones in England, Germany, Switzerland, Spain, Japan and China, so he has a very intimate knowledge of college men. His experience in this field and that which he gained while an undergraduate, will enable him to speak convincingly and authoritatively on his subject. The talk will be direct from a college man to college men.
