Large Attendance Expected At Annual Banquet.

The annual dinner of the Technology Christian Association will be held tonight at 6 o'clock in the Union, Rooms A and B. A number of tickets has been sold and it is expected that the gathering will be larger than any previous T. C. A. meeting this year. A brief summary of the principal successes of the year will be presented by the outgoing Cabinet and an outline of next year's plans will be submitted by the new officers. President Machnix, the Advisory Board, and several of the alumni will be present. The Advisory Board consists of the following: Walter B. Snow, Chairman; Professor George B. Haven, Dean Alfred E. Burdon, Professor Dagul C. Jackson, William C. Irving, Arthur S. Johnson, Frank L. Locke and F. Nathaniel Perkins.
