ELECTION DAY.

The latest addition to Technology's calendar—Election Day—is something so entirely new at the Institute, both in theory and in practice, that it is impossible to predict what the day will bring forth. However, there has been something in the air for the past week that strongly suggests that every prey of class consciousness has hurried to get to the polls and "see how it stands right for it leads in part to success. A part of life's education is not only the grinding work of school but also the development of character—how to use the eye. A man can observe enough in going from the Union to Huntington Hall to carry him through a lecture, so the speaker stated.

The church is the way by which one can get himself into a better perspective. The body and mind are fed every day and there must be something also for the spiritual element of a man. The church furnishes this. The men of capacity of re-examination, of high ideals, with love of God, are the ones with a good perspective.

CHEMICAL SOCIETY

The first regular meeting of the Chemical Society for the year will be held in the Union Monday, October 25th. It is to be a "War Meeting," various members of the faculty will speak on topics relating to the present war. Further details as to speakers and program will be announced in Monday's edition of The Tech.

BISHOP WM. LAWRENCE TALKS ON "PERSPECTIVE."

Ability To Speak Well—Love Of Color—Sense Of Humor—Essential Attributes.

"Perspective" was the subject which the Rt. Rev. William Lawrence, Bishop of Massachusetts, spoke on at an event held in the Union yesterday.

Bishop Lawrence stated that one of the requisites for a man to have a good perspective was a good voice.

"Today, in our intense life, we do not stop to think about our voices. The man whose voice carries is the one who forgets that he is talking to a large number of people. The fault with many speakers is that they think their voices must be pitched according to the number in the audience before them."

Sense of humor often gives a person the ability to laugh off an argument instead of making a quarrel. The use of the English language causes many people to get out of a good perspective. "The exaggerated form in which we often talk shows lack of perspective. We are losing the capacity of expressing ourselves in strong ways for we use them every day in very common incidents."

It is a great thing to know how to stand right for it leads in part to success. A part of life's education is not only the grinding work of school but also the development of character—how to use the eye. A man can observe enough in going from the Union to Huntington Hall to carry him through a lecture, so the speaker stated.
