NEW T. C. A. ACTIVITY
INTERESTS FRESHMEN
One Hundred Sixty Enlist In Freshman Discussion Groups.

How does the college foreshadow the future? What is the value of college traditions? How far can the student's biography be written from his cash account? Should college functions be "wet" or "dry"? What is the secret for finding time for everything in college? Has one a right to criticize a church in which he takes no share of responsibility? Why do students in your college vote for a particular candidate? What is the difference in seeking an honor and seeking to be worthy of it? What are the possibilities of comradeship between men and women? Does it make any difference what our experience is, so long as we are loyal to it? What is the relation of the student initiative to the college ideal? Those are some of the questions picked at random from the book, "Student Standards of Action," that will be used in the T. C. A. Freshman Discussion Groups. The questions are discussed by the authors on the (Continued on Page Six)

FOREIGNERS TAUGHT

Students Give Classes In English
Eight students are now engaged in teaching English to foreigners in Cambridge not far from the New Technology. The work is among the Lithuanians and done under the auspices of the Cambridge Y. M. C. A. Each man gives two hours one night a week. The foreigners are very appreciative of his service and the teacher has the compensation of experience in dealing with the kind of men with whom he will eventually have to do. Work of this sort was started by the Industrial Department of the Y. M. C. A. seven years ago and at the present time there are more than three thousand students engaged in this work coming in contact with fifty thousand men. Sheffield Scientific School has been a pioneer in this work coming in contact with more than three thousand students of the Y. M. C. A. seven years ago. Started by the Industrial Department, it has been extended.
