KOMMERS DINNER TO BE HELD NEXT WEEK

Annual Show Banquet To Be Given On Friday, November 11 In The Union.

On Thursday evening, November 11, the annual KOMMERS dinner will be held in the union. This dinner is given each year by the Tech Show to promote the interest of the student body in dramas and the Show management is arranging an interesting program.

The main object of this affair is to bring together all students who are in any way concerned in the show and to make them acquainted with the work taken up by the different departments. It is the only time during the year that the work of each of the many departments connected with the show is fully explained.

Tickets for the dinner may be obtained from any member of the management.

CHEMICAL SOCIETY

Professor John E. Bicker, of Brown University, gave an interesting lecture on "The Fixation of Atmospheric Nitrogen," at a meeting of the American Chemical Society held last Friday evening at the Engineer's Club.

The number of Technology men who were permitted to attend was limited to fifty.
