THE TECH

COMMUNICATION

To the Editor of The Tech:
At the Institute Committee meeting November 11, barely a quorum was present, due to the carelessness and neglect of the different representatives, as sufficient notice was given to all through The Tech. It is the duty of each man who represents an activity on the Institute Committee to be there at the meetings held every other Thursday in Engineering C, at 5:00 o'clock.

WALTER HARRINGTON.

BUSINESS CANDIDATES

There will be a meeting of candidates for the business department of Tech Show in the Show Office today between 4:30 and 6:30 o'clock.

CROSS COUNTRY RUN

presented in the meet are: Bates, Massachusetts "Aggie," Williams and Worcester Polytech.

- Captain Brown of Technology is picked to be a contender for individual honors with Bell of Maine and Granger of Dartmouth. Dartmouth and Maine both have strong teams this year, the former looking to Granger, Durgin and Myer to finish among the leaders, while Maine has Freti, Bell and Dempsey to depend on.

"The men who are to run for Technology are: Colonel R. G. Brown '16, F. Dodge '17, M. G. Graft '26, H. F. Gray '16, C. T. Gustling '16, D. H. Farner '17 and L. McVickar '18. The first five men from each team to finish will count in the scoring.

The meet this year is being run under the auspices of the Technology Track Team and Manager Tourtellot would like to see a large number of men from the Institute come out and see the finish.

UNION ASSIGNMENTS

attached to the regular Union room blank, both of these cards may be had at the Cage. These cards after being properly filled out, are to be placed in the small mail box beside the calendar. If the application is approved by the Union Committee, the name of the class, club, or society, the room and the time will be on the calendar by noon of the following day. If the applying association is not satisfied with the assignment made by the Union Committee, one of its members should see either H. L. Bickford or J. E. Pearson, or both of these gentlemen to come to the meet of the Institute Committee in the Union Committee.

The members of the Institute Committee will be in the Union the following days during the noon hour: Monday—E. F. Pearson; Tuesday—M. A. Monroe, chair; Wednesday—H. L. Bickford; Thursday—L. S. Blodgett; Friday—H. L. Bickford; every night—E. M. Snyder.
