HARVARD-YALE GAME

The tickets for the Harvard-Yale game will be distributed this week, beginning this morning. All students who have applied for tickets may obtain them at the H. A. A. office in Cambridge any time before Friday evening at 6 o'clock. Mr. Moore, the treasurer of the association, stated that none of the applications had been refused. Those applying for single seats have been given seats in the cheering section. The Harvard management is desirous that the cheering be good, and those Technology students who receive single seats are invited to the mass meeting Wednesday night in the Harvard Union.
