of popular songs was one of the best numbers of the evening. The Banjo and Mandolin Clubs gave a number of pleasing selections that were exceedingly popular with the audience.

The long dancing program consisting of twenty numbers, followed the concert. After supper a new feature was introduced into the program, namely, that of distributing to every one present small favors in the shape of Christmas presents. "Shorty" Carr played the role of Santa Claus. The nuns were: Mrs. R. A. Cram, Mrs. E. C. Macfarlane, Mrs. H. G. Pearson and Mrs. A. D. Burson.

The program is as follows:
1. Skipper Jasie Green

“DAMAGED GOODS”

Mr. Edward Mead To Give Recital This Afternoon.

Mr. Edward Mead of New York will present "Damaged Goods" in a dramatic recital this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in Room 23, Walker. The recital is being given under the direction of the Technology Christian Association and the admission will be free to all.

"Damaged Goods" has been recited before a large number of student bodies in the past and in every instance the presentation has been marked by a refinement and delicacy that brings to the foreground the meaning and the necessity of social purity. "Damaged Goods" is Eugene Brieux's great play on eugenics.

NAVAL SOCIETY DINNER

they sailed along at a terrific rate under bare masts before the wind which was kindly from the west. On another occasion when running before a gale great danger lay in the fact that the waves were so steep that the boat might have stuck her nose under when coming down a wave. All the pet-cocks in the kerosene tanks which were tied to the mast stays were opened and sufficient oil dropped into the water to smooth out the waves behind the boat but this did not eliminate the danger. They had to bring the boat around into the wind and throw over a drag anchor consisting of an oak plank tied to the regular anchor. This worked so successfully in keeping her headed into the wind that they were able to hang a light on the rigging and they all went into the cabin and slept together for the first night since leaving the coast.
