COMMUNICATION

To the Editor of The Tech:

The Junior Class Dinners of past years have not been representative gatherings. This is practically the only chance available to the members of the second largest class in the Institute to get together this year in the spirit of fellowship and sociability.

It is a deplorable fact that class gatherings of all kinds are not restricted to meetings of class interest and enjoyment, and not to a general carnal as happened once before this year.

Therefore I take this opportunity to appeal to the members of the Junior Class to make this coming dinner a truly representative affair both in the matter of attendance and conduct. Signed, A JUNIOR.

WHAT we'd call “determination” in ourselves, we often mistake for “bull-headedness” in the other fellow. But we don't ever mistake real, true geniality in a man or a tobacco.
