The members of the South American Delegations who have volunteered to act as guides for the inspection trip which the delegates of the second Pan-American Scientific Congress are to make of the new Institute tomorrow morning, will meet as follows:

9:00 a.m. Meet in Rogers corridor, and leave for Cambridge. A short trip through the new buildings will be made to familiarize the members with the group.

10:30 a.m. Meet in the Congress at the Copley-Plaza.

11:00 a.m. The inspection trip with the delegates will start.

1:00 p.m. Luncheon at the Harvard Union as guests of the Harvard College Faculty.

All those who act as guides during the excursion will be expected from all their Saturday morning classes by Dean Burton.

HOCKEY TEAM LOSES
(Continued from Page One)

The prospects certainly appear bright.

Saturday night the squad leaves for New Haven where they meet Yale, thus completing the most strenuous week of the present season. The lineup in the Cornell game was as follows:

TECH: ROY ORTEGON, c. J. Harding; G. Johnson, g. C. Cochran, c. B. B. B.; G. Hunter alone on this machine are all con-

The new-day advances that come with the delegates will start.

Thus writers of all other makes can immediately run the new Oliver Number "9" with more speed and greater ease. The new-day advances that come with the delegates will start.

17 CENTS A DAY
Remember this brand-new Oliver "9" is the greatest value ever given in a typewriter. It has all our previous special inventions—visible writing, automatic spacer, 6½-ounce touch—plus the Optional Duplex Shift, Selective Color Attachment and all other new-day features.

Yet we have decided to sell it to everyone everywhere on our famous payment plan—17 cents a day! Now every user can easily afford to have the world's crack visible writer, with the famous PRINTYPE, that writes like print, included FREE if desired.

Today—Write for Full Details and be among the first to know about this marvel of writing machines. See why typists, employers, and individuals everywhere are flocking to the Oliver. Just mail a postal at once. No obligation. It's pleasure for us to tell you about it.

The Oliver Typewriter Co.
146 Congress Street, Boston, Mass.