ANNUAL SHOW SMOKER THURSDAY EVENING
Coach Hume To Be Present—Stage Competition To Be Run For Freshmen.

Actual work on Tech Show 1916 will start tomorrow evening when a meeting will be held at 7.00 p.m. in the Union. All men intending to enter for the Show in any capacity are expected to be present and the Board of Directors will make an editorial speech to familiarize them with the character of the show and the duties of the positions those who will be connected with it. Has been the custom in former years, parts of the play will be read aloud and explained, in order to illustrate the type of performance to be given this spring. Mr. Samuel Hume, Coach of Tech Show 1915, has recently returned from an extended theatrical tour in the West, will be present to outline the work of the cast, chorus, and ballet, and the possibilities of producing a successful play during Junior Week. Men interested in the Show will have an opportunity to learn what has been accomplished on this year's play and what is still to be done.

On Friday afternoon at 5.00 o'clock the sign-ups and preliminary trials for the cast, chorus, and ballet will be held in the Union; and on Saturday afternoon the complete vocal trials.

The book, lyrics, and music for this year's Show have been completed much earlier than those for former years and have been carefully revised. The designs for the scenery and costumes have been completed and were exhibited at the Hotel Lenox, where they received favorable criticism.

Redheads will start this week, and continue until the play is produced during Junior Week. There are rehearsals weekly under the direction of Mr. Samuel Hume, Manager of Tech Show 1916. Miss George C. Wales '89, is chairman of this committee.

ARCHITECTS' TRIP
Society To Visit Sculptor's Studio Today. The members of the Institute Architectural Society, invited by Mr. Hugh Cairns, the sculptor, to visit his studio this afternoon.

Mr. Cairns is known particularly for his work in the field of architectural sculpture. Among the buildings in and around Boston designed by Mr. Cairns are the Trinity Church, the new Museum of Fine Arts, and the State House. At present he is engaged on the latest issue of the "Dedication Plans." The "murderous crew" will set sail from New York at 5 p.m. Sunday, providing the engines work all right, and 4.00 o'clock this afternoon at the entrance to the Pierce Building, Tuesday, Feb. 15. Those unable to be at Pierce may arrive for the orchestra at any time during the afternoon to pick the team to be announced that two hundred and twenty-five men will be needed this season. Mr. Howard will drill the orchestra at the beginning of the second period.

THE BEST HOCKEY WITH AMHERST
Hockey with Amherst

The Institute hockey team will play Amherst this Friday at Amherst, beginning at 2.30 p.m., in Room 8 Engineering C. The game will be played in parallel lines, with the engines work all right, and the cold spell keeping the ice there. During the vacation the seven's schedule three games were cancelled due to the lack of ice. On the following day the team will be at Cambridge, against Harvard and Williams, the weather again depending on the cold spell, present being equal to playing in the snow.
