THERE'S NOT A CHANCE

That All's whole crew won't be on deck tonight at eight sharp, although one of the wise little ones has been spreading it around that they got lost down in Connecticut.

Al himself did get stranded along with a couple of his satellites down among the noises of Oceanaet but they fixed it up and the whole family will be along tonight in Huntington Hall to explain to you what was meant by the argument.

Just think of it Osie, old gusshawk, and don't lose this one and only chance to put you and end the child in strong, with grandna.

150 for two—Including the dance afterward in the Union with all profits going to the support of athletics.

FRESHMAN DINNER TO BE HELD MARCH 8

List Of Speakers Includes Dean Burton and Professor H. F. Talbot

The annual dinner of the Freshman class will be held Wednesday night for ap-\nplication to the grade of second lieutenant. This announcement is made in order to assure the success of the class. The committee chairman has been working very industriously to make the affair a success, and promises an evening well worth while for all those who wish to attend. Professor H. F. Talbot, "Joe" Long-\n田野, Major Edwin T. Cole and Mr. Joseph Balschien, all of whom are Harvard Officers, as well as members of the Freshman class, will be in attendance.

In order to assure the success of the class, the first committee was elected. The class is expected to be represented by at least twenty members.

Some outside preparation for this test is necessary, but only in case the number of entrants is to be increased. This announcement is made in order to prevent any possible financial difficulties the sale of tickets may cause.

The programme has been arranged, consisting of twenty dances, starting at 8:30 p.m., with an inter-\n
Military Hop

Annual Social Event To Take Place In Hotel Lenox

The annual military hop for the Cadet Corps, which is due to take place in the Palmer Room at Hotel Lenox, will be held on Thursday, March 1st. The programme will consist of several events, including a dance and a dinner. The military hop is open to all fourth year men, as well as to graduates. This announcement is made in order to prevent any possible financial difficulties the sale of tickets may cause.

The programme has been arranged, consisting of twenty dances, starting at 8:30 p.m., with an inter-\n
Reunion song

Undergraduates are to be allowed to name the song for the first time. The song and music are to be original. The contest closes on March 15th, but in consideration of the late admittance of undergraduates the time limit for these entries is extended until April 1st.

The winning song and name of the winner will be announced at the annual dinner of the Freshman class. This announcement is made in order to assure the success of the class. The committee chairman has been working very industriously to make the affair a success, and promises an evening well worth while for all those who wish to attend.