WRESTLING MENT

wrestling a decision on Monday. Meanwhile, Fowier, the Yale 115-lb. man, had wrestled a total of 38 minutes during the meet. By defeating the Yale man he won the 115-lb. Intercollegiate Championship of New England.

In the 145-lb. class Hoffman of Technology threw his opponent, a Harvard man, in 4 minutes, 37 seconds. He was defeated by another Harvard man, in the semi-finals.

When the finals came he had wrestled three weeks ago injured his shoulder, but he recovered and wrestled a decision. Meanwhile, Morse of Technology had a draw. He grew in the preliminary, but finally won on decision after an extra-minutes period. In the semi-final
