NAVAL ARCHITECTURAL SOCIETY DINNER

Mr. White Gives Some Anecdotes, Professor Keith Speaks On "Anecdotes of Recent Discovery"

At the Naval Architectural Society dinner, held last Wednesday in the Union Diner Room, Mr. Alfred White spoke on "Anecdotes of Recent Discovery," and Professor Keith followed with a paper on "Anecdotes of the Experimental Model Basin of the Bureau of Construction and Repair at Washington." Ship's lines are made mutual curves, which can be regulated by suitable constants to give any desired displacement or form. A definite record of each ship's lines is to be kept (Continued on Page Three).

JUNIOR PROM SIGN-UPS

Number Increases Rapidly

One hundred and twenty-seven Sophomers, 78 Juniors, and 23 Seniors from all four classes for Coxing the Crew have been signed up. The sign-up season was opened on April 17, and is expected that many others will sign up by the end of the month. The first payment for $5.00 may be paid any noon at the table in the Arcade.

SHOW REHEARSALS

The chorus and cast members will rehearse this afternoon at 5:00 o'clock in the Large Assembly Room.

The ballet will rehearse Saturday afternoon at 4:00 in the Large Assembly Room. The orchestra will rehearse Saturday afternoon at 1:00 in the Union Dining Room.

FRESHMEN CREW MEN EXCUSED FROM GYM

Important Practice To Be Held Saturday Afternoon At Cambridge

An exceptional opportunity for work outs is offered by the Crew practice tomorrow which will be held at the Newell Boat House in Cambridge at 2:30 p.m. The twenty-five machines there installed will allow all the candidates to put the suggestions of Coach Stearns, who will be present, into immediate practice. To reach the Boat House go to Harvard Square, cross the Longfellow bridge, and turn up river by the Stadium. It is desired that men who wish to try for Assistant Manager or Cox, report to Manager Blank at this practice. There is a special need for right men from all four classes for Crew. It is expected that any such who really wish to make the position (Continued on Page Three).

SOPHOMORE BASEBALL

Candidates for the Sophomore baseball team will report at the gym every day this week at 1:00 o'clock, bringing their own gloves. The first game is less than three weeks off, and men trying out were judged partly on their attendance. Manager Blank has announced the following schedule, which does not include the three games with the Freshmen, to be played some time in May:

April 8, Worcester Polytechnic Institute
April 14, Massachussetts Institute of Technology;
April 21, Tufts Records;
May 2, Rhode Island;
May 15, Wadsworth Field.

CONSTITUTION OF MATTER

The lectures by Dr. Comstock on the "Construction of Matter in the Light of Recent Discovery" began last Wednesday. They are to be continued in Room 24 Walker, at 4:15 on Wednesday afternoon through the remainder of the term.

INSTITUTE COMMITTEE HOLDS BUSY MEETING

Recommendations To Abolish The M. I. T. A. Accepted—Revisions Made

At a meeting of the Institute Committee held last Wednesday, a report of the committee, which included the recommendation of abolishing the M. I. T. A., was discussed and accepted with recommendations by the Institute Committee. Under the suggested plan, the present M. I. T. A. will be completed, and all new members shall be admitted under the same rules as in the past. The recommendation that the present constitution and by-laws be abolished and the revised constitution and by-laws be adopted was also discussed.

TRACK MEETINGS

Outdoor Season To Start On Monday, March 27

There will be two Track meetings today in Room 20, Eng. B, at 2:00 p.m., and on Friday, March 24, at 2:00 p.m. The outdoor season will begin in April, and the first meet will be on May 1, with the senior members and the National Rifle Association. The outdoor season will be discussed and Manager Blank will announce the revised schedule. The grading of the candidates and Assistant Manager Blank will be announced. The outdoor season will be discussed and Manager Blank will announce the revised schedule. The grading of the candidates and Assistant Manager Blank will be announced.