The Tech

Mondats, March 27.

In his remarks at the mass meeting, Friday night, President T. H. Odling, under the act of Congress, announced that the Tech, as a technical college, could not be the executive agency of the Department of Education. Mr. Odling said that the college had been established to train engineers and that it was the duty of the students to prepare themselves for the work of the future.

In the order of business, the selection of officers for the new year was discussed. It was announced that the following officers would be elected:

President: W. A. Wood, '17, A. E.

Vice-President: A. E. Keeler, '16

Secretary: J. W. Barker, '16

Treasurer: L. P. Hollanders, '16

The meeting adjourned.

The next drill will be held as usual on Thursday, April 6.

Winter smoked, a highly successful event, was held on the campus last Friday night. The program included entertainment by the Tech Orchestra, a lecture by Dr. Dewey, and a dance in the student union. Dr. Dewey spoke on the subject of "The Future of the World," and his lecture was followed by a dance in the student union. The orchestra played several stirring songs, and the audience enjoyed themselves thoroughly.

The next drill will be held as usual on Thursday, April 6.
