1919 NOTICE.

Members of the class of 1919 are requested to meet at west wing of the new buildings tonight no later than 7.30. Previous to the Courtyte celebration the class will be addressed by the various managers of the class teams, who will outline their different Field Day policies. Besides the managers of the teams the coaches will also say a few remarks in regard to the hours of practice and advice to candidates.

COMMUNICATION.

The students of the Institute are cordially invited to share in the interesting discussions, pleasant social affairs and congenial fellowship of the Epworth class of the Epworth Church on Massachusetts Avenue opposite the Cambridge Common. The Class is composed of more than fifty young men and women residents of Cambridge and students of Technology, Harvard, Radcliffe and Sargent's. Meetings are held on Sundays from twelve to one o'clock, immediately following the church service. There will be a reception on Tuesday evening, October 3, for new students.

ferred under cover of night some days ago. Several representatives of the Sophomore class, who were interviewed by telephone late last evening as to the origin of this dashing and defiant move, declined to make any definite statement, saying only that they had reason to suspect the quarter from which the demonstration proceeded and declined to state what action they intended to take in the matter, although it is probable that the banner will be removed by dawn. It may be presumed, however, that a painstaking effort will be made by Institute authorities to discover the man responsible, and that if he is exposed it will go hard with him, for so grave a breach of discipline as this, the raising

"PRACTICAL POLITICS."

"Practical Politics" had almost a special Tech issue on September 16, when it set forth the biographies and pictures of no less than five M. I. T. alumni. These men, it seems, are nominees of one kind or another, and in its Who's Who, "Practical Politics" gave them abundant space.

Not a Species.

"Groundfish," which to many is a term of mystery, is not used to designate any particular species, but means rather the large class of fish, that live on or near the bottom of the sea, including cod, pollock, haddock, halibut, hake, sole, and many others less common than these

The Great American Smoke.

Fall in line with hundreds of thousands of red-blooded smokers of the good old U. S. A. Smoke the cigarette tobacco that's been an American institution for three generations—"Bull" Durham. The rich, relishy, star-spangled taste of "Bull" Durham puts the national spirit of get-up-and-hustle into your hand-rolled cigarette. "Bull" Durham is the freshest, snappiest, liveliest of smokes.

GENUINE "BULL" DURHAM SMOKING TOBACCO

"Roll your own" with "Bull" Durham and you'll find a far greater satisfaction in smoking your cigarette than you ever did before.

Made of the richest, mildest leaf grown, "Bull" Durham has a delightful mellow-sweet flavor found in no other tobacco.

Men who never smoked cigarettes before are now "rolling their own" with "Bull" Durham.

FREE An Illustrated Booklet, showing correct way to "Roll Your Own" Cigarettes, and a package of cigarette papers, will both be mailed, free, to any address in U. S. on request. Address "Bull" Durham, Durham, N. C.
