SHOW MEETING POSTPONED

In order that those freshmen who are trying out for position of Assistant Publicity Manager of the Tech Show, and are on the 1920 Field Day teams, will not have to cut their practice today, the meeting of the candidates which was called for this afternoon at 5.00 o'clock has been postponed.

There will be no more meetings until after Field Day. Candidates will report to Manager Caird, '18, in Room 1-150 at 5.00 o'clock next Monday for the next assignment. All work which was due today need not be handed in until this time. Freshmen still desiring to enter the competition may do so by reporting to the Publicity Manager at this meeting.

SOMERSET FOR CONCERT

Dancing Will Be Until 2.00 O'Clock Instead of 12.00

Rumors have been circulating that at the Winter Concert there will be dancing only until 12.00 o'clock midnight. There is no foundation for these rumors, as the management has made all its plans with the idea that dancing will continue until 2.00 A. M.

A departure from the past is noticed in that Hotel Somerset will this year be the scene of the Concert, a departure which relays for its continuance on the support of this winter's Concert by the Institute.

HUGHES PARADE

Next Saturday a torchlight parade will be held in New York and the Technology section which will participate will form at 40th St. and Park Ave., at 8.30 P. M. The parade will end at Madison Square Garden where Hughes, Roosevelt and Taft are to speak. Among the prominent Technology men on the committee in charge of the Technology section are R. H. Howes, President of the Technology Club of New York, "Pa" Coburn, L. D. Gardner, and R. S. Willis, the latter two being former editors of The Tech.

GREAT EXCITEMENT IN TECHNOLOGY YARD

A few fortunate men were treated to a little impromptu excitement late Monday afternoon. An old man living near Central Square suddenly became demented and drew a ferocious-looking jack-knife. He was about to conquer the world by starting in on a girl near by when several of the natives of sunny Italy who are building the Institute rallied to the battle. An exciting chase followed around the piles of material near the athletic field, which was only terminated by the arrival of "Timmy," our genial traffic policeman, who had come in response to the frenzied reports of an escaped lunatic. The officer quickly suppressed the riot and departed with the cause of the trouble securely handcuffed, followed by the excited and still noisy Italians.

ORCHESTRA NOTICE

The regular orchestra rehearsal will be held today at 4.15 in the Caf under the direction of Mr. Howard. The manager requests all men to be present.

CATHOLIC CLUB.

"Over one hundred at meeting" is the slogan which has been adopted by those in charge of the affairs of the Catholic Club. The gathering for this month will take place tomorrow night, beginning with a supper starting at 6 o'clock in the cafeteria. Hereafter meetings will be held on the first Monday of every month.

Coach Kanaly, who has always been one of the most entertaining men to address the members of the club, will be present tomorrow evening. A business session will follow the meeting.

FRESHMAN TUG-O-WAR

After Monday night's practice Coach Burton announced the names of the men whom he had provisionally chosen to constitute the team which will pull against the Sophomores Friday. Several light men were given preference to heavier candidates because of their better form shown in practice.

If any member of the team fall below his previous standard of work in the remaining practice sessions, he will be replaced by some man on the second team.

Friday's issue of The Tech will contain the names, weights and heights of the men on the rival teams.
