ONE DAY LAUNDRY
(Leave it in the morning and get it at night)

Happy the few who have not mortgaged their hopes of future sustenance on the result of that most inconstant coquette, the Presidential election! The Lounger is presented on all sides with the far from edifying spectacle of the undergraduate who shys at the mere sight of a newspaper and whom the ordeal of headline-reading necessitated by the hourly change of certainties is rapidly unnerving. Scarce one of the rampant Republicans who yester week spent their time in cake-walking about the Court with money spoiling for want of takers, who has not since developed a case of "bookkeepers' blink" after the days and ways of electoral tabulation. As for the hitherto trampled Democrats, uncounted be the miles their pencils have traveled over the wavering columns of recalcitrant States, or the tons of newspapers whose front pages have felt their searing gaze only to be tossed aside before the ink is dried. "Honest," desperately exclaimed one who had voted not wisely, but bet too well, "I have gotten so now that I can't read anything but the Technology Monthly—everything else is sure to have some real news in it somewhere." The Lounger could do nothing to relieve his mortal agony, and even as he moistened the sufferer's burning temple the latter read a Monthly joke aloud and passed into a misprint.

GYM TEAM

Monday afternoon the Gym team will start work at the Boston Y. M. C. A., when the first practice of the season will be held. The prospects for a successful season are bright according to Manager J. W. Kilduff '19. Meets are pending with several of the New England colleges. New candidates for the team are to hand in their names to the manager or leave it for him at the Track office in the Field locker room. There will be a charge of ten cents per man for each afternoon, and this arrangement will continue for a month, at the end of which time there will be a cut and the remaining men will get gymnasium tickets at the usual rates.

FRESHMAN RELAY TEAM

The manager of the freshman relay team requests that all members of the team leave their gray jerseys with the cashier at the Tech Caf not later than 1 o'clock Saturday. The numerals will be put on, and the jerseys will be returned at an early date. This is the only opportunity for freshman relay men to have their numerals attached.

FOOTBALL TEAMS

W. P. Ryan '18, athletic editor of Technique, wishes all members of the Sophomore football team to report at Notman's, 3 Park street, on Monday, Nov. 13, to have the team picture taken. It is very important that all the men should be there at 1.15 with uniform jerseys so that a good picture for Technique can be made.

The members of the freshman team are asked to report at the same place and time on Tuesday, Nov. 14, with uniform jerseys.

TECHNIQUE ELECTION

E. W. Neff '18 was elected Assistant Art Editor of Technique at a meeting of the Art Department last Wednesday. Mr. Neff was chosen for his capability of fulfilling the Art Department standard of "the best man for the place."

FRESHMAN BASEBALL

All men who wish to compete for the managership of the 1920 baseball team are asked to leave their name, address, experience and the name of their preparatory school, at the Technique office for H. M. Blank '18. In addition to the above information, men should state what afternoon next week they will be free to meet Blank for instructions. The competition will be started immediately.
