NEW ENGLISH SECTIONS

Newspaper Men Will Hear Billy Sunday Tonight

All the members of the new English sections in Journalism will go to the Sunday Tabernacle tonight. It is probably that they will listen more attentively than under ordinary circumstances to an address in which they are expected to gather an opinion of the famous evangelist. Mr. Presser, the instructor of the new class, will endeavor to provide him with the latest, most up-to-date style of dress which he may be in the market for.

One of the chief objects of the new class is to develop in those interested in newspaper work the ability to write editorials, according to a recent plan, the men who were the editors of the editorial board will be required to write editorials for the Life. At least one editorial will be required each week.
