

TECH MEN

Who desire to appear with more distinction than when clothed in ready-to-wear apparel are invited to call at either one of my stores and inspect my line of woollens as well as get acquainted with my prices.

The best dressed men in your fraternities are among my patrons. Why not you?

CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

Next to Field Day, the most problematical athletic event in the year is scheduled to become history today. Knowing that whatever the outcome—whatever, that is, may be the score piled up against the Techsneak legions,—there will be carnage and bloodshed well worth viewing, The Lounger has taken meticulous care to engage in advance the three square feet of standing-room which the late comer will be unable to secure.

Though a spectator of many years' standing at Tech-techsneak battles, The Lounger has never tired of the ever-varying and ever-new aspects of football with which this most unique of one-sided games always startles the most phlegmatic beholder. The backward pass, the vertical punt, the gunless run, the painless tackle—these and many more of the ultra-modernist's plays make the annual contest of the All-America first and second elevens a scintillant struggle between the qualities of justice and mercy in the Tech eleven.

Thanksgiving in Boston is to The Lounger a wonderful thing, implying as it does a trip in the rain from favorite restaurant to favorite restaurant, only to find all closed. The eleventh commandment, "Thou shalt not eat," organized by the Puritans especially for the holidays, has never lost its force since first ushered in; and the lodged-but-not-boarded who cannot find a soft-hearted or soft-headed friend to regulate his thanksgiving diet is likely to be dependent upon the salvation Army. There are, as The Lounger nevertheless fears, others who make the occasion an opportunity to dine, not wisely but too widely, and who suffer from the unwonted access of high spirits thereby occasioned. Some zephyr whispers to The Lounger's ears a tale wherein an overwrought feaster from the Institute and a hotel stairs prominently figured—or rather, the feaster figured, the stairs disfigured—and he suspects that the party had failed to hear ever-rampant W. Sunday on "The Backslider." But those who command The Lounger's unrequited envy are the ones who have taken the bit in their teeth and gone home for Thanksgiving; for their sake he can only hope the Registrar will fall into a temporary aphasia akin to the stroke of absent-mindedness which ever befuddled that official's intellect when it came to giving The Lounger his once-coveted diploma.

M. I. T. FORUM COMMITTEE

On Tuesday, December 5, the M. I. T. Forum Committee will hold a very important meeting in Room 4-107. The chairman of the committee urges the attendance of all of the members, as at this meeting a large amount of business in regard to the future plans of the Forum will be taken up.

STUDENT DRILL

The student drill in the freshman class is now well under way. Under building 1 the guns and belts are arranged and numbered, and the members report at either the athletic field or the armory. All those who have had previous experience in drilling have been given non-commissioned positions. Those in charge of the regiment warn the members that every day of drill there will be a poster put on the bulletin board in the main entrance of Building 10, stating whether the drill will be in the armory or on the athletic field.
