PLATTSBURG MEN TO MEET AT BOSTON HARVARD CLUB

All Technology men who went to the training camp at Plattsburg last summer have been invited to attend a lecture on the Officers' Reserve Corps at the Harvard Club in Boston, Tuesday evening, Feb. 13. This lecture is being given to induce more men to take the examination to join the Corps.

The Institute has appointed a committee of five men to investigate conditions that would arise in case of war so as to determine the best course for the Institute to follow. The men appointed are K. C. Richmond '16, chairman, Major Cole, W. Harrington '16, D. H. MacLellan '17, and A. L. Keating '17.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT READINGS TO BE CONTINUED THIS TERM

The readings given by professors of the English department during the first term are to be continued this term by Prof. Frank Aydelotte. The readings will be held in the Civil Engineering Museum, Room 1-175, every Tuesday evening from 7 to 8, beginning tomorrow. The readings, which are intended to provide amusement rather than information, will consist of stories, humorous pieces and articles of current interest.

The reading held last term proved to be highly successful and were attended by many of the students. Smoking is to be permitted.

MURAD

THE TURKISH CIGARETTE

The Murad Claim: A quality value in Turkish cigarettes absolutely unapproachable.

Is the Claim true?

Ask the Smokers of America.

They smoke more Murads than any other brand of Turkish cigarettes costing the consumer 15 cents or more.
