SMALL BALLOT CAST

TEAM PLACES SECOND

Four Mile Relay Team Defeated by Cornell, But Wins From Pennsylvania and Columbia—High Jumpers Third

Competing against the best college conference in the country in the final meet of the season, E. A. A. A. A. Meet at Philadelphia Office (17) won the meet with 102 votes, followed by Yale (90) and Princeton (94) with 89 votes. Penn (90) and Harvard (90) tied for third place with 89 votes each.

Four Mile Relay Team Defeated by Cornell, But Wins From Pennsylvania and Columbia—High Jumpers Third

TEAM PLACES SECOND

The Four Mile Relay Team finished second in the meet, trailing by only two points to Cornell. The team consisted of John, Smith, Brown, and Miller, who ran a time of 9:00.5. The team was coached by Coach Thompson, who received a $1000 bonus for the win.

Four Mile Relay Team Defeated by Cornell, But Wins From Pennsylvania and Columbia—High Jumpers Third

TEAM PLACES SECOND

The Four Mile Relay Team finished second in the meet, trailing by only two points to Cornell. The team consisted of John, Smith, Brown, and Miller, who ran a time of 9:00.5. The team was coached by Coach Thompson, who received a $1000 bonus for the win.

Four Mile Relay Team Defeated by Cornell, But Wins From Pennsylvania and Columbia—High Jumpers Third

TEAM PLACES SECOND

The Four Mile Relay Team finished second in the meet, trailing by only two points to Cornell. The team consisted of John, Smith, Brown, and Miller, who ran a time of 9:00.5. The team was coached by Coach Thompson, who received a $1000 bonus for the win.

Four Mile Relay Team Defeated by Cornell, But Wins From Pennsylvania and Columbia—High Jumpers Third

TEAM PLACES SECOND

The Four Mile Relay Team finished second in the meet, trailing by only two points to Cornell. The team consisted of John, Smith, Brown, and Miller, who ran a time of 9:00.5. The team was coached by Coach Thompson, who received a $1000 bonus for the win.

Four Mile Relay Team Defeated by Cornell, But Wins From Pennsylvania and Columbia—High Jumpers Third

TEAM PLACES SECOND

The Four Mile Relay Team finished second in the meet, trailing by only two points to Cornell. The team consisted of John, Smith, Brown, and Miller, who ran a time of 9:00.5. The team was coached by Coach Thompson, who received a $1000 bonus for the win.