At the freshman-sophomore meet, held Tuesday afternoon in the student union, President E. P. Giles '18 and Professor W. H. Warner '17 were elected captain and vice-captain, respectively, of the freshman-sophomore relay team. Also elected were M. L. Williams '18 and J. H. Haas '18, assistant captains. The new team is expected to do well in the upcoming meets, particularly against Dartmouth and Pennsylvania, who were beaten by the Harvard team last year.

American Bridge Official Speaks

Last Friday night Mr. O. E. Libbey, Assistant Chief Engineer of the American Bridge Company, addressed the members of the Civil Engineering Society on certain phases of the work of the American Bridge Company. His talk was mainly with the field methods of construction.

Mr. Libbey had a realistic attitude of different methods of execution, and some of the developments made in bridge building were discussed by him.

The meeting was held in the student union. It was well attended.

C. E. Society Meets

With the exception of some business and the review of the year's activities, the regular meeting of the Civil Engineering Society was held last Tuesday night in the student union. Students interested in the field of engineering were present in varying numbers. The meeting was addressed by Professor W. H. Warner '17, who was formally introduced by Professor E. P. Giles '18.

The society plans to hold a social gathering in the near future. The date and place of the meeting will be announced later.

Boys' Club Meets

The Boys' Club meets in the student union, Monday nights, at 7:30 P.M. The club is open to boys of the college and its purpose is to bring them together for social intercourse. The club has a large membership and is well organized.

Mandolin Club Notice

Monday, March 12th, the Mandolin Club meets in the student union at 7:30 P.M. The meeting will be conducted by President C. E. Proctor, who will give a short talk on the history of the mandolin.

Aerospace News

Aerospace News is the official publication of the Aerospace Society, which was founded in 1917. The society is open to all students interested in aerospace engineering.

AERO CLUB OUTLINES 1917 PROGRAM

The Aerospace Society has outlined its program for the 1917-1918 academic year. The program includes lectures, discussions, and field trips to various aerospace facilities.

CAMPERS TO MEET

Dr. Reiman will speak—Eight Thirty, Saturday hike

The next meeting of the Pack and Paddlers' Club will be at Eight Thirty, Saturday, March 12th. The meeting will be held in the student union. Dr. Reiman will speak on the subject of camping.

NEW "TECH" BIBLES OFFERED

Copies of the official "Tech" Bible are now available in the student union. The Bible is required reading for all members of the society.

TECHNICAL ENGINEER TO SPEAK ON WARSHIP PROPULSION

Mr. William E. Osborn of the General Electric Company will speak on warship propulsion at 7:30 P.M. on Monday, March 12th, in the student union. Mr. Osborn is a well-known authority on the subject of propulsion.

END WRESTLING SEASON WITH ANNUAL BANQUET

E. F. Gilles '17 Elected Next Year's Captain—Dean Burton and J. M. Bugby '18 New Managers

This year's interclass meet was held tonight in the student union. After the freshman-sophomore meet, held Tuesday afternoon in the student union, President E. P. Giles '18 and Professor W. H. Warner '17 were elected captain and vice-captain, respectively, of the freshman-sophomore relay team. Also elected were M. L. Williams '18 and J. H. Haas '18, assistant captains. The new team is expected to do well in the upcoming meets, particularly against Dartmouth and Pennsylvania, who were beaten by the Harvard team last year.

OPEN HOUSE ANNOUNCED

The Aerospace Society has announced an open house to be held on Tuesday evening, March 12th, in the student union. All members are invited to attend.

A RECORD OF CONTINUOUS NEWS SERVICE FOR 35 YEARS

The Aerospace Society has been publishing a news service for 35 years. The service is open to all students interested in aerospace engineering.

TRACK TEAM REVIEWS SEASON'S SUCCESSFUL SEASON

Relayed relay team was defeated by the recent Harvard meet, which was held on Saturday, March 12th, in the student union. The team was composed of all members of the relay team, and it was well prepared for the meet.

FRANKLIN TOWN MAKE SUNDAY

The Franklin Town make SUNDAY an event. The meeting will be held in the student union on Sunday, March 12th.

CALENDAR

March 12th, 1917

1:00 P.M. Faculty Meeting

1:30 P.M. Physics Departmental Meeting

5:00 P.M. University Song Festival

5:30 P.M. University Song Festival