DRAFTING BEGUN IN THE CAPITAL AT 9:30 TODAY

Notifications and Extension Proceedings Will Not Be Issued on Local Boards, Not Through Register's Office

WASHINGTON, July 20, (nps o'clock)—At 9:30 o'clock this morning the great commission courts of the United States which will form the large American overseas army authorized by the war resolution, a temporary mobilization headquarters was held in the public hearing room of the Senate office building, where only the invited guests, Secretary of the Navy, Albert E. Carter, Assistant Secretary of the Navy, and members of the commission were admitted to witness the draft.

Inasmuch as registration for the draft by trench students was announced last week, there has been much talk about it. It has been thought by many of the students that notification of draft and exemption proceedings would be accelerated. This is not the case, the registration cards will have distributed to the local exemption boards, so that such conditions will be registered in the district where he has his home. Exemption negotiations will probably have to be made direct with local authorities of the draft boards.

Whether or not college men will be exempted is not known although the War Department has advised its agents to advise the university students. According to advice received this morning the Joint Board of Medical Examiners is not now considering on this information on the status of the military men the beginning of next year.

The United States conserves the establishment of the district boards, as far as it seems, is on the war way, and is attempting to hurry the draft along as rapidly as possible.

It is the earnest desire of the War Department to see that the army is equipped at the earliest possible moment, that the military men will be trained and armed and that the draft will be completed as rapidly as possible.

The professor said that he thought it was a very important thing to have a draft board in the city, and that it would be a great help to the army.

"It is the earnest desire of the War Department to see that the army is equipped at the earliest possible moment, that the military men will be trained and armed and that the draft will be completed as rapidly as possible.

The professor said that he thought it was a very important thing to have a draft board in the city, and that it would be a great help to the army.

"It is the earnest desire of the War Department to see that the army is equipped at the earliest possible moment, that the military men will be trained and armed and that the draft will be completed as rapidly as possible.

The professor said that he thought it was a very important thing to have a draft board in the city, and that it would be a great help to the army.

"It is the earnest desire of the War Department to see that the army is equipped at the earliest possible moment, that the military men will be trained and armed and that the draft will be completed as rapidly as possible.

The professor said that he thought it was a very important thing to have a draft board in the city, and that it would be a great help to the army.