WAR DEPARTMENT WILL NOT EXEMPT COLLEGE STUDENTS FROM DRAFT

Democracy Must Be Preserved Through-out the Draft—Men May Petition For Return to Train

MAY DECREASE ENROLLMENT IN FALL

(Special to The Tech)

That college men will not be exempt from the Federal draft simply because they go to college—technical or otherwise,—was the gist of the advice derived from the Army Signal Corps' inter-departmental bulletin. The bulletin further stated that it would be impossible for men attending reserve officers' training courses to secure exemption from the draft. The Signal Corps Bulletin stated: "The President, with the approval of the War Department, has declared that college men will be liable to be drafted, irrespective of their college education, or of the fact that they have been called to active service in the Signal Corps, or of the fact that they have been placed on the active list of the Signal Corps, or of the fact that they have been placed on the regular list of the Signal Corps. The President has declared that the draft is to be applied equally to all college men, regardless of whether they have been called to active service in the Signal Corps, or of the fact that they have been placed on the active list of the Signal Corps, or of the fact that they have been placed on the regular list of the Signal Corps. The President has declared that the draft is to be applied equally to all college men, regardless of whether they have been called to active service in the Signal Corps, or of the fact that they have been placed on the active list of the Signal Corps, or of the fact that they have been placed on the regular list of the Signal Corps.
