Some of the Men at Institute Training to be Ensigns

A F ew of the sixty cadets of the Naval Reserve School. A four months' course in navigation, seamanship, gun- nery, and aeronautics similar to their given at Annapolis will fit these men for ensign's commissions in the reserve. Details of training have prepared the men for the rugged life should an war-out.