(new to The Tech)

CAMP, July 26—

The Harvard military authorities last night announced that 400 students on military leave at Pharaohs, will come to Cambridge on Aug. 10, to complete their military course of instruction.

The acceptance by the Government of the request of Maj. Theodore Lyman of Harvard, in command of the state's unit of the same military training, will permit the Pharaohs to have a complete course of instruction.

The Pharaohs, who will be given a special training for future officers, will work in drill yards, under the direction of a field officer, and a staff of faculty members.

The Pharaohs will be paid a special allowance for their training, and a reduction in the number of students who will be required to do work in the drill yard will be made.

NEW FELLOWSHIP OPEN

Annual Appropriation of Royalties Given For Research

For the purpose of encouraging new and original research in the development of the industrial arts, the \( \text{R} \) have set aside an annual sum of $200,000 to be paid to the professors in the department of industrial arts, in the following conditions:

1. The amount of the fellowship shall be reduced by the amount of the admission of evidence of similar research or work of the same or similar special types for advanced work in the same field, to the extent that such evidence shall cause the amount of the fellowship to be less than $200,000.

2. The Corporation may, in its discretion, refuse to pay any part of the amount of the fellowship on account of any other document or evidence as to any claim to the fellowship, including a specific statement of the particular field of research or investigation.

3. The fellowship will be paid on or before December 1, 1917, as authorized by the board of trustees.

4. The bill of rights committee's bill of rights will be carried into effect on the same date.
