CUTS LECTURE TRIP SHORT

Professor Pearson will be in Boston tomorrow.

Radical changes in the plans of Professor Henry C. Pearson, head of the department of English, at Harvard, will not permit him to make his usual trip to Europe. The terms of his leave expired on June 1, and he was not able to return from Europe for the fall term. The Institute activities will have to be arranged to provide for his absence, and the plans for the fall term will have to be made accordingly.

Pearson is expected to return to the United States in the fall and to resume his duties at the Institute.
