I

and achievement in brief and attractive aeronautics, photographs of aerial hap-

and receive special rates.

Hotel Brunswick under same manage-college spirit always prevails.

The Italian Room is a new note.

Friday,

SIMPLEX WIRES AND CABLES

120 West 32nd St, New York

CHAMPLAIN STUDIOS

50 Congress Street, Boston

HIGH GRADE

Anthrachite COAL

For Domestic Uses.

Our Correspondence Stations are Supplanted by the Institute.

Boston - Furber Coal Co.

50 Congress Street, Boston

48. The Sophomores organized a special military camp, accommodating about three hundred men, at East Maitland, last winter for twelve weeks.

11. The Juniors organized a military camp at Cambridge, with students in uniform.

10. The Sophomores organized a special military camp, accommodating about three hundred men, at East Mahtican, last winter for twelve weeks.

5. The faculty of the Institute voted to grant degrees to students who were good standing, who went into military service at a limited time, and who were not willing to quit the completion of their studies.

1. At the moment war was declared President Maclaurin offered to the U. S.

government the facilities of the Institute, faculty and laboratories, realizing that the facilities of the Institute, faculty and laboratories, realizing that in any way affiliated with Technoity. Men commissioned in accordance with the Government with water-sterilizing

devices and equipment.

The Alumnae War Service Auxiliary, financed by

20. The Army Aeronautical School was established with a capacity of twelve-hundred for training Marine Engineers. This work was replaced later by the

19. Intensive courses were established in Naval Architecture, open to Seniors, and some of the faculty flent into the employ of the Government.

23. Tile Alumnae War Service Auxiliary, financed by Mrs. Edward Cunningham, 10. The Sophomores organized a special military camp, accommodating about three hundred men, at East Mahtican, last winter for twelve weeks.

the Loswell School for industrial foremen.

Raymond W. Ferris, Chairman

MANAGE railway, light, power and

gas companies.

13. The Alumnae War Service Auxiliary, financed by Mrs. Edward Cunningham, for every kind of service.

14. The Tech, the students’ newspaper, has been enlarged and its scope broadened to publish news of the various Technology war activities.

and the Government with water-sterilizing
devices and equipment.

18. The Who’s Who of Technology Bureau, a questionnaire addressed to all graduates asking what they have done, what they are able to do and what they intend to do in the future, was published last summer.

17. Four years military option established, in accordance with plans formulated just after war was declared.

16. ALEMBIT ACTIVITIES

15. The Army War Service Auxiliary, financed by Mrs. Edward Cunningham, for every kind of service.

12. The Armament Organization, which has mapped out a program of help-

21. The Armament Organization, which has mapped out a program of help-

10. The Sophomores organized a special military camp, accommodating about three hundred men, at East Maitland, last winter for twelve weeks.

22. For the U. S. Shipping Board, Professor A. E. Burdett organized thirty

schools for the officers of the new merchant marine, these schools being in ports on all coasts of the country. About five hundred men have attended and these schools in sections, each section being allocated a certain length of time.

11. The Juniors organized a military camp at Cambridge, with students in uniform. Over four hundred men will take regular military drill and exercises.

12. The Armament Organization, which has mapped out a program of help-

10. The Sophomores organized a special military camp, accommodating about three hundred men, at East Maitland, last winter for twelve weeks.

for industrial foremen.

Raymond W. Ferris, Chairman

MANAGE railway, light, power and

gas companies.

13. The Alumnae War Service Auxiliary, financed by Mrs. Edward Cunningham, for every kind of service.

14. The Tech, the students’ newspaper, has been enlarged and its scope broadened to publish news of the various Technology war activities.

and the Government with water-sterilizing
devices and equipment.

18. The Who’s Who of Technology Bureau, a questionnaire addressed to all

graduates asking what they have done, what they are able to do and what they intend to do in the future, was published last summer.

17. Four years military option established, in accordance with plans formulated just after war was declared.

16. ALEMBIT ACTIVITIES

15. The Army War Service Auxiliary, financed by Mrs. Edward Cunning-

ham, for every kind of service.

12. The Armament Organization, which has mapped out a program of help-

21. The Armament Organization, which has mapped out a program of help-

10. The Sophomores organized a special military camp, accommodating about three hundred men, at East Maitland, last winter for twelve weeks.

22. For the U. S. Shipping Board, Professor A. E. Burdett organized thirty

schools for the officers of the new merchant marine, these schools being in ports on all coasts of the country. About five hundred men have attended and these schools in sections, each section being allocated a certain length of time.

11. The Juniors organized a military camp at Cambridge, with students in uniform. Over four hundred men will take regular military drill and exercises.

12. The Armament Organization, which has mapped out a program of help-

10. The Sophomores organized a special military camp, accommodating about three hundred men, at East Maitland, last winter for twelve weeks.

for industrial foremen.

Raymond W. Ferris, Chairman

MANAGE railway, light, power and
gas companies.

13. The Alumnae War Service Auxiliary, financed by Mrs. Edward Cunningham, for every kind of service.

14. The Tech, the students’ newspaper, has been enlarged and its scope broadened to publish news of the various Technology war activities.

and the Government with water-sterilizing
devices and equipment.

18. The Who’s Who of Technology Bureau, a questionnaire addressed to all

graduates asking what they have done, what they are able to do and what they intend to do in the future, was published last summer.

17. Four years military option established, in accordance with plans formulated just after war was declared.

16. ALEMBIT ACTIVITIES

15. The Army War Service Auxiliary, financed by Mrs. Edward Cunning-

ham, for every kind of service.

12. The Armament Organization, which has mapped out a program of help-

21. The Armament Organization, which has mapped out a program of help-

10. The Sophomores organized a special military camp, accommodating about three hundred men, at East Maitland, last winter for twelve weeks.

22. For the U. S. Shipping Board, Professor A. E. Burdett organized thirty

schools for the officers of the new merchant marine, these schools being in ports on all coasts of the country. About five hundred men have attended and these schools in sections, each section being allocated a certain length of time.

11. The Juniors organized a military camp at Cambridge, with students in uniform. Over four hundred men will take regular military drill and exercises.

12. The Armament Organization, which has mapped out a program of help-

10. The Sophomores organized a special military camp, accommodating about three hundred men, at East Maitland, last winter for twelve weeks.

for industrial foremen.

Raymond W. Ferris, Chairman

MANAGE railway, light, power and
gas companies.

13. The Alumnae War Service Auxiliary, financed by Mrs. Edward Cunningham, for every kind of service.

14. The Tech, the students’ newspaper, has been enlarged and its scope broadened to publish news of the various Technology war activities.

and the Government with water-sterilizing
devices and equipment.

18. The Who’s Who of Technology Bureau, a questionnaire addressed to all

graduates asking what they have done, what they are able to do and what they intend to do in the future, was published last summer.

17. Four years military option established, in accordance with plans formulated just after war was declared.

16. ALEMBIT ACTIVITIES

15. The Army War Service Auxiliary, financed by Mrs. Edward Cunning-

ham, for every kind of service.

12. The Armament Organization, which has mapped out a program of help-

21. The Armament Organization, which has mapped out a program of help-

10. The Sophomores organized a special military camp, accommodating about three hundred men, at East Maitland, last winter for twelve weeks.

22. For the U. S. Shipping Board, Professor A. E. Burdett organized thirty

schools for the officers of the new merchant marine, these schools being in ports on all coasts of the country. About five hundred men have attended and these schools in sections, each section being allocated a certain length of time.

11. The Juniors organized a military camp at Cambridge, with students in uniform. Over four hundred men will take regular military drill and exercises.

12. The Armament Organization, which has mapped out a program of help-

10. The Sophomores organized a special military camp, accommodating about three hundred men, at East Maitland, last winter for twelve weeks.

for industrial foremen.

Raymond W. Ferris, Chairman

MANAGE railway, light, power and
gas companies.