CONVOLUTION OPENS DRIVE FOR $10,000.00 TO Y.M.C.A. WAR FUND
Mr. David Porter Tells Students of Horrors of Prison Camps and Urges Them to Help Relieve This Suffering

As a result of the mobilization of forces by the Technology Christian Association, following President Macalurin's appeal for the movement in a speech delivered at the Varsity Dinner of the Engineering School, the Institute has set up an on-campus drive yesterday afternoon, and has raised $6,997.35 in its fund. On the first day of the campaign, the original collection solicitors raised $500 among themselves.

TECHNICAL Slaughter
held literary contest

The Technical Co-operative has initiated a literary contest, open to all Technical students, with a prize of $2.50 in gold for the best manuscript. The assistance is offered to write on any subject of the students' choice and without constraint. The contest is now under way, and the amount of time is limited to two months.

The following rules govern the contest:

1. All manuscripts must have some distinguishing mark, such as an essay number, on them.
2. A $2.00 entry fee, including a $1.00 subscription to this magazine, is charged for the contest. Authors are welcome to submit as many entries as they wish.
3. Manuscripts must be postmarked by November 15th.
4. Only students of the Institute are eligible to participate in the contest.
5. All entries must be anonymous, and names must not be submitted with the manuscripts.

A MUSIC FUND GIVE-FIVE

The Combined Musical Clubs have announced a five-year musical fund campaign. The aim of this campaign is to raise funds for the musical education of the students, and to support the musical activities of the Institute.

The following is the list of events:

1. Thursday, November 16, 1917 - A benefit concert at the Franklin Square Hotel.
2. Friday, November 17, 1917 - A benefit concert at the Callahan Hotel.
3. Saturday, November 18, 1917 - A benefit concert at the Emerson Hotel.

Three more days left to contribute to the Y. M. C. A. War Fund Campaign. Have you given your share?
