CONVOCATION TOA T Y

Affair of Combined Clubs--

The Tech men are to have a Christmas and New Year's celebration on Friday, December 29, 1916, at 20:30. The program will consist of songs, dances, and games. The Tech basketball team will play a four-game series with the Y. M. C. A. team. The Tech band will also perform. Invitations are extended to all Tech students, faculty, and staff.

DRIVE TO HELP THE RED CROSS WILL BE EXPLAINED TO ALL REGISTRANTS

Through the efforts of The Tech Mr. Richard W. Hale, a prominent Boston lawyer, will speak at Convocation today.

CONFERENCES IN DEAN'S OFFICE

BEGINNING today, there will be at Technology various lawyers to aid Technology registrants in gaining a working knowledge of the draft regulations, especially as they are affected by the new questionnaire.

The first step will be taken today, and all registrants will be addressed by the lawyer who is to be connected with their registration, which has been called by President Macleod for 1:05 o'clock, by Mr. Richard Hale.

Red Cross Drive

There has been a general movement throughout the university to increase the funds in the Red Cross drive for the purchase of medical supplies. The drive is being conducted by the Red Cross representatives on campus, and the funds will be used to aid in the war effort.
