To avoid life trials it will be necessary for the new group to overhaul the present freshmen class in their work by the time they arrive here.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR THE ADMISSION OF NEW FRESHMEN

Realizing that speed in preparation is proving to be one of the most important factors in success in the present world conflict, the admission committee of the freshmen class should be admitted at the beginning of the second term, provided that there are a sufficient number of applicants. This action was taken for the sake of consideration of the applicants, and it is impossible for this group to take the four-year course alone, as this would require that some of the new students be admitted.

The freshmen class should be admitted at the beginning of the second term, provided that there are a sufficient number of applicants. This action was taken for the sake of consideration of the applicants, and it is impossible for this group to take the four-year course alone, as this would require that some of the new students be admitted.

The freshmen class should be admitted at the beginning of the second term, provided that there are a sufficient number of applicants. This action was taken for the sake of consideration of the applicants, and it is impossible for this group to take the four-year course alone, as this would require that some of the new students be admitted.

The freshmen class should be admitted at the beginning of the second term, provided that there are a sufficient number of applicants. This action was taken for the sake of consideration of the applicants, and it is impossible for this group to take the four-year course alone, as this would require that some of the new students be admitted.

The freshmen class should be admitted at the beginning of the second term, provided that there are a sufficient number of applicants. This action was taken for the sake of consideration of the applicants, and it is impossible for this group to take the four-year course alone, as this would require that some of the new students be admitted.

The freshmen class should be admitted at the beginning of the second term, provided that there are a sufficient number of applicants. This action was taken for the sake of consideration of the applicants, and it is impossible for this group to take the four-year course alone, as this would require that some of the new students be admitted.

The freshmen class should be admitted at the beginning of the second term, provided that there are a sufficient number of applicants. This action was taken for the sake of consideration of the applicants, and it is impossible for this group to take the four-year course alone, as this would require that some of the new students be admitted.

The freshmen class should be admitted at the beginning of the second term, provided that there are a sufficient number of applicants. This action was taken for the sake of consideration of the applicants, and it is impossible for this group to take the four-year course alone, as this would require that some of the new students be admitted.

The freshmen class should be admitted at the beginning of the second term, provided that there are a sufficient number of applicants. This action was taken for the sake of consideration of the applicants, and it is impossible for this group to take the four-year course alone, as this would require that some of the new students be admitted.

The freshmen class should be admitted at the beginning of the second term, provided that there are a sufficient number of applicants. This action was taken for the sake of consideration of the applicants, and it is impossible for this group to take the four-year course alone, as this would require that some of the new students be admitted.

The freshmen class should be admitted at the beginning of the second term, provided that there are a sufficient number of applicants. This action was taken for the sake of consideration of the applicants, and it is impossible for this group to take the four-year course alone, as this would require that some of the new students be admitted.

The freshmen class should be admitted at the beginning of the second term, provided that there are a sufficient number of applicants. This action was taken for the sake of consideration of the applicants, and it is impossible for this group to take the four-year course alone, as this would require that some of the new students be admitted.

The freshmen class should be admitted at the beginning of the second term, provided that there are a sufficient number of applicants. This action was taken for the sake of consideration of the applicants, and it is impossible for this group to take the four-year course alone, as this would require that some of the new students be admitted.

The freshmen class should be admitted at the beginning of the second term, provided that there are a sufficient number of applicants. This action was taken for the sake of consideration of the applicants, and it is impossible for this group to take the four-year course alone, as this would require that some of the new students be admitted.