—Meets With Wesleyan and Yale Will Complete Schedule

INTEREST EXPECTED TO STAR

Tomorrow evening the Technology swimming team will have its first meet of the season at Amherst at the Boston Y. M. C. A. at eight o'clock. This is the last meet which the team will have at home prior to traveling south for the winter meet on February 4th. Manager Dennis Williams and Carter and Gannett, the team's co-captains, have been holding practices all week long during the term, and the team is expected to start well.

The events which are scheduled for Boston are the 100-yard, 200-yard, and 400-yard freestyle, the 100-yard backstroke, the 100-yard breast stroke, the 100-yard individual medley, the 100-yard butterfly, the 200-yard medley relay, and the 400-yard medley relay. The team is expected to have a good showing in the 100-yard and 200-yard freestyle events, in which Captain Dennis Williams will represent the team, and in the 100-yard backstroke, in which Captain Gannett will compete. The team is also expected to have a good showing in the 100-yard breast stroke, in which Captain Carter will compete.

The team will leave for Amherst on Thursday afternoon. They will arrive in Amherst late in the evening and will have their meals there. The team will leave Amherst early Saturday morning and will return to Boston late in the afternoon. The team is expected to have a good showing in the meet at Amherst.
