INSTITUTE WAR SERVICE AUXILIARY DOING MUCH TO RELIEVE SUFFERING OF NEEDY

Nearly 1100 Articles Distributed in January in Men in Service and Refugee Children

The extent to which the War Service Auxiliary is responding to the needs of those who have been dispossessed in the interests of the nation, and the needs of destitute refugees in distant lands, is shown by the fact that the group from which the following items have been published and distributed is but a small part of what the Auxiliary is accomplishing in the way of helping the victims of war. Many of these articles were made and distributed in the month of January.

"So great," it says, "has been the desire of the Auxiliary to act in the interests of refugees and war workers, that the Auxiliary was able, through the British Government and through Dr. Marshall, to do nothing for the welfare of France. The Auxiliary is acting in the interests of those who are non-combatants in the war, and are victims of the war. The Auxiliary is doing what it can to help those who are in need, and is trying to do it in the way that it can be done."

The Auxiliary is working with the Red Cross, and with various national and international organizations, to help those who are in need. The Auxiliary is working with the Red Cross, and with various national and international organizations, to help those who are in need.

The Auxiliary is working with the Red Cross, and with various national and international organizations, to help those who are in need. The Auxiliary is working with the Red Cross, and with various national and international organizations, to help those who are in need.