The Musical Club Concert

Of the assumption that the activities play an important part in the development of the college man, the colleges were advised to consider their non-academic functions as in other years so far as practicable. The idea was to interweave as little as possible with the complete education of the young men of America. Acting on this suggestion, Technology has continued its activities, and among those that of the Musical Clubs. The winter trip of these clubs unprofitably postponed on account of the difficulties of transportation, while limited the Cotton's journey to Ayer and played for the benefit of the students.

The idea was to interweave as little as possible with the complete education of the young men of America. Acting on this suggestion, Technology has continued its activities, and among those that of the Musical Clubs. The winter trip of these clubs unprofitably postponed on account of the difficulties of transportation, while limited the Cotton's journey to Ayer and played for the benefit of the students.