TENTATIVE CAST FOR TECH SHOW SELECTED

Coach Duncan pleased with the progress made by all delegations. Delegations selected a first-cut of chorus members. Duncan is going to seed the final definitive cast of the show. The final cast will be selected by the end of the week. The show will open on March 23. Duncan has not yet made a decision on the final cast. Duncan has not yet made a decision on the final cast.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., WEDNESDAY, MARCH 13, 1918

Price Three Cents

TWO HUNDRED DEAA PROFESSORS BEG FAVORITE T.A. GROUPS

Large Number Attend War Meeting of Criminal Beulcy

Between two hundred and two hundred and fifty faculty drawn from the Harvard community attended the war meeting of the Criminal Beulcy. The meeting was held in the Physical Laboratory and was addressed by Mr. Whitewell, who was the principal speaker of the evening.

DORMITORY DANCE

Attended by Over One Hundred and Fifty Couples

Between one hundred and fifty and two hundred and fifty couples attended the second Dormitory Dance which was given in the Walker Memorial. The attendance was slightly less than that of the first dance, but the enjoyment was as great. A custom for bolding all future Proms was inaugurated at this dance, and a statement for the benefit of the members of the next Prom was made. The Committee issues the following bulletin, dated March 12, 1918:

The Committee issues the following bulletin, dated March 12, 1918:

OFFICERS' WRITING

The officers of the Junior Prom Committee have written to all members of the class of 1920, informing them of the plans for the Prom and the date of its occurrence.

SUCCEEDS Lasting as Head of Tech Dance Committee

George Conklin Gibbes, a graduate of the course of Civil Engineering, in the year 1909, has arrived in France as a member of the United States Army. He has been in New York since 1909, and was in the United States Army for the duration of the war. He has been in France since the beginning of the war.

MILITARY SCIENCE BULLETIN

The following bulletin, dated March 12, 1918, has been issued by the Department of Military Science:

A meeting was held in the Adolphus S. B. Bartlett Library to discuss the form of the bulletin. The form of the bulletin was adopted by the meeting.

NEWS MEETING

There will be a meeting of all members of the Tech Dance Committee at 1:00 o'clock in the Tech Auditorium on March 12, 1918.

TECH SHOW NOTICE

At the end of the Tech Show business competition, Perry Soper and E. C. Whitewell, will give a talk to the Tech students.

CONTINUED ON PAGE 3