American Students Asked To Contribute Funds For A Statue in Memory of George Guynemer

Famous French Aviator Killed in Action After Bringing Down Over Fifty German Planes

His Death a Blow

The following is a quotation taken from a letter written by T. DE SEROUN, Deputy Mayor.

...I therefore take the liberty of concluding with the assurance that all the inhabitants of the town of Compiègne have the honor of sending you in our name, as a memorial of our grief, the lion of the twentieth century, George Guynemer, whose exploits are not a legend or fairy story, but are the mere facts of the heroic deeds of the 'ace of aces.'

...In our school, where he was killed, we were happy and proud that he was able to be his own master, and when we knew of his death it was a sorrow as if a member of our family had been struck. George Guynemer was the epitome of the brightness of the High School of today, and every one of us will remember him as we have to remember Chief Bryant, equally sad and sorry.
