The visit of the American Red Cross Mission to Russia last summer for the purpose of studying the conditions prevailing in that country has had far-reaching results. A tremendous good will feeling has been created, and we are now beginning to see the fruits of this good work.

Great opportunities afforded American Engineers for Service in China

The Chinese Government, through its Ministry of Commerce, is now actively soliciting American engineers for work in China. The country is just such a place as this seeking to secure engineers for its development. The conditions are excellent, and the work is highly paid.
