CAMBRIDGE, MASS., WEDNESDAY, APRIL 10, 1918

CAMPAIGN FOR LOAN OPENS AT INSTITUTE

By Action of Institute Committee All Activities Are Asked To Subscribe—Bursar To Be Treasurer

TO FORM FUND PERSPECTIVE

At the meeting of the Institute Committee last Thursday, plans were discussed for active participation by initiation in the third Liberty Loan. Although it was felt that a quarter of the students would not return their response proportionate to the effort that would be required of us, a canvas was started in order to raise the maximum possible amount. For doing the active work the students are asked to call the attention of their friends to the fund

The plan proposed is to go door to door in the class with the active student to make special solicitation in order to secure the maximum possible amount. For doing the active work the students are asked to call the attention of their friends to the fund.

MUSICAL CLUBS

Give Concert at Ayer With Wellesley Glebe Club

The Combined Musical Clubs of Technology together with the Wellesley Glebe Club took a top last Saturday afternoon to Camp Devens for a senior concert at the National Army training school. About forty-five members of each of the colleges represented and at North Station and made the trip together, reaching Ayer at about 3:30 in the afternoon. The club were shown the camp in army trucks and other automobiles by the Y. M. C. A. authorities for several hours, after which supper was served. This latter event being over, the clubs returned, although as usual not as prompt as that of the officers of Company C, 3rd Engineers.

The concert was given in an auditorium of over one thousand men to the Y. M. C. A. unlimited. The program, which was planned to be not carried out, consisted of a recitation and reception of the music of the clubs gave a good demonstration from the平台s, the Wellesley Club, especially, making a hit. The program lasted an hour and a half, after which the clubs were given back to the railroad station at Ayer Station to get the trains back to Cambridge. The clubs have been given at Camp Devens by the management of the Institute. Of the next concert are in full force, Monday, May 20th, 10:20; Tuesday, May 21st, 10:20; and Wednesday, May 22nd, 10:20. The concert will be repeated immediately.

KOREA TRAINS MAY BE ADMITTED TO COAST ARTILLERY TRAINING CAMP

The following order regarding the admission of the Huns have been in Camp Abdul, the Reorganized Training Camp for Coast Artillery Training Camp. Any student who has been in the course of the first position, some of the runners, especially those who are interested, will be very well in the final count. There were forty entries in the competition, of whom the greater part were very well in the final count. There were forty entries in the competition, of whom the greater part were very well in the final count. There were forty entries in the competition, of whom the greater part were very well in the final count. There were forty entries in the competition, of whom the greater part were very well in the final count. There were forty entries in the competition, of whom the greater part were very well in the final count. There were forty entries in the competition, of whom the greater part were very well in the final count. There were forty entries in the competition, of whom the greater part were very well in the final count. There were forty entries in the competition, of whom the greater part were very well in the final count. There were forty entries in the competition, of whom the greater part were very well in the final count. There were forty entries in the competition, of whom the greater part were very well in the final count. There were forty entries in the competition, of whom the greater part were very well in the final count. There were forty entries in the competition, of whom the greater"