In the third act the ballet of the Corps, N. A., assi-anced by Nymphs, shadows appeared to the alldienlce, This of Colonel Francis-T. Nelson, was expected that the Boston performances to battle about thiwas el-

M.

Meanwhile

After much applause this was repeated. W assuredly ,worthy of a prominent place perintendent of Bu-in it. But the program had gone to the Institute, was

Ad

Mills '20 won both the 120-stalled on the Cam-smiths, typographers, cooks, machine machines in which it were proving impracticable in the big responsible for the success of affairs in Europe must have been expected that the Boston performances to battle about this-

And

The summary of the meet followrs. most of those attending. evening been a time of the great est

Moreover Wynn '20 was undergoing a change of dress, to the ills of the program, in the midst of his "Dancing of the second time, (Continued on page 2) would recognize these men, who only in no case.

The motions are rapid in this branch and the program, a powder puff, mirror and nialia?' could bestored war eno,

machines in which it were proving impracticable in the big

in the theater, and the audience was both l|

some points. The Seniors did not

In the theater, and the audience was both l|

A. R. Miller '86, head of the Losing in its those attending. as is well evidenced the attendance by their beauty and were playing to a house by the best

in the theater, and the audience was both l|

As a reward for his singing. Himself, of Wyse and Booth's "sneaky" number,

As

first place winner, captur-it a steam, oil-burning tank, thirty-feve and fifty men, at- trailed along with 20 and 10 points re-was solved into groups of dancing couples.

The decorations of the ballroom, al-

Although Less Extravagant

Tanks

Although Less Extravagant

Tanks

Although Less Extravagant

Tanks

Although Less Extravagant

Tanks

Although Less Extravagant