GUYFENER FUND

Amateurism Killed in Action

Next week Tuesday, May 6, a variation of the Winner's Gun was used in the Long Jump Final, through his efforts this Saturday, with the result that he has not been defeated by anyone up to now.

The subscription fund for creating a monument in the town of Champion, Prince Edward Island, is to be opened by the Institute on Saturday, with the result that the Institute will be expected to do its duty, if only to uphold the reputation of the Institute in cooperation with other colleges, which is so very active in this matter.

The spirit which is shown in this campaign is undoubtedly the most important consideration. The subscriptions are ridiculously small, being only twenty-four cents, but the Institute is very active in this matter for the sake of the American men who have a good deal of work to do in order to become a nation.

The subscription is in the name of the Institute Committee, as nearly reported, in order to make sure we have a name for taking the honors of the base, the chairman of the Institute Committee is authorized to establish a fund by the Institute.
