Glimpse of Mrs. Sidney Drew Selling Liberty Bonds on Steps of Institute

Third Dorm Dance

To Be Held Tonight at Eight

O'clock in Walker Memorial

Tonight at 8 o'clock the Third Dormitory Dance of the year will be held in the main hall of the Walker Memorial. The committee in charge has completed every detail and is sure that the affair will surpass all previous ones in excellence.

The tickets, which have been on sale for the past week, are one dollar, admitting a couple. Only a hundred and seventy-five tickets are on sale, and the majority of these have already been sold. The few remaining tickets can be obtained by applying to any member of the dance committee.

Those in attendance at the dance are emnored of the music through the engagement of the well known Espouard's orchestra. The Preludial program calls for sixteen selections of various dances, all of them being more beautiful than those of the last similar dance, according to the management. The dance will last from 8 o'clock to 11:45. The proceeds from the dance are to be given to the support of the baseball teams which have been organized at the dormitories.

The dance committee wishes to invite upon the student body of the Institute and the men of the Government.

schools quartered at Technology that the dormitory dances are not limited to the students in the dormitories or to students at the Institute, but are for outsiders as well. Besides providing a good time, it is the aim of the efforts to give everybody a chance to get acquainted.

It has been announced that Professor and Mrs. Hudson, and Professor and Mrs. Roylance will be the classes.

Following is a list of the men on the dance committee and their rooms at the dormitories: William Barron '20, E-401;

Y-102; R. E. Luce '21, H-401; Paul Swasey '19, N-302; H. J. Daube '19, H-202; Murray Whitaker '20, H-103. Those desiring to attend should make sure any of the above men at the dormitories in charge. The interest shown in tonight's affair as indicated by the sale of tickets is imperative to the plans those who have failed to procure tickets should do so at once or miss a good time.

TECHNOLOGY TENNIS TEAM

LOSES TO STRONG YALE FOUR

Institute Team Falls Before Ivy Stars.

After defeating Trinity by an overwhelming score last Friday afternoon the Institute team went on to New Haven where they were engaged in a double. The Yale team in the last ten years. Although overpowering the man will be-axis grounds of the college. The ten matches were played in the dormitories in charge. The interest shown in

tonight's affair as indicated by the sale of tickets is imperative to the plans

those who have failed to procure tickets should do so at once or miss a good time.

The best doubles were between Harding and Coffin for Yale and Kilham and Burton for Technology. The final score being 6-4; 7-6. These results indicate the strength of the man on the other hand the excellence of the individual player.

The best singles were between Harding and Coffin for Yale and Kilham and

Burton for Technology. The final score being 6-4; 7-6. These results indicate the strength of the man on the other hand

the excellence of the individual player.