TO THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES
The undersigned citizens of the United States, deeply concerned in the welfare of the American people, hereby present to you, as a matter of the gravest importance, the following facts, in the hope that they may be given the consideration they so justly deserve.

We, the undersigned citizens, hereby call upon you, as President of the United States, to take immediate steps to ensure the safety and security of all American citizens living abroad.

The situation is such that the lives and property of American citizens abroad are in grave danger. The current conflict in [Country] has led to widespread violence and destruction, and we are concerned that American citizens may be targeted for harm.

We urge you to take action to protect the safety and security of American citizens abroad. This includes ensuring that they have access to adequate resources, providing for their protection, and working to bring about a peaceful resolution to the conflict.

We believe that it is the responsibility of the United States government to protect the safety and security of its citizens, and we urge you to take immediate action to do so.

Sincerely,
