Published twice a week throughout the year by the students of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology

MANAGING BOARDS

Paul C. Leonard '17
Homer V. Hoovers '20
George W. Canon '29

Circulation Manager

Although communications may be published unaltered if so requested, the authors have the right to review them before they are printed. Acceptance for publication is not a guarantee of responsibility, however, for the facts as stated nor for the opinions expressed.

The Editor-in-Chief is always responsible for the opinions expressed in the editorial column, and the Managing Editor for the matter which appears in the news column.

IN CHARGE THIS ISSUE

Carole A. Clarke '21

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1914

U. PON looking back for the past year, we must admit that the proud spirit of Technology has been decidedly broken. The confidence which was long entertained in the works of our students and M.I.T. is no more than a dream. Our enthusiasm and "pep" that carries a college man through his college course at the Mal de Mer School. At Camp Taylor, Lafayette, Ky., and, at various other places, the enthusiasm and "pep" that carries a college man through his college course at the Mal de Mer School. At Camp Taylor, Lafayette, Ky., and in various other places, the enthusiasm and "pep" that carries a college man through his college course at the Mal de Mer School.

LEQUIT D. COLE GOES "UP"

Lieutenant Cole was graduated from the Civil Engineering School at the Class of 1913. His specialty was in the field of Artillery. He was stationed at Camp Taylor, Lafayette, Ky., and in various other places, the enthusiasm and "pep" that carries a college man through his college course at the Mal de Mer School.

LEWIS CHARLES R. WATT "UP"

Lieutenant Watt prepared for the Mining Engineering and Metallurgical School at the University of California. At the College he was a member of the Dike Fraternity, a member of the Coterie, and a graduate of the Phi Delta Chi Fraternity. He was graduated from the Mining Engineering School at the Class of 1913.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stolle of 100 Beacon street, Winchester, announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth Ann Borromeo, to Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Lokey, whose wedding will take place at the Church of the Advent, Boston, on the 15th of this month. The couple has been boarded by the Officers' Training School at Camp Taylor, Lafayette, Ky., and in various other places, the enthusiasm and "pep" that carries a college man through his college course at the Mal de Mer School.

LEWIS J. ROBERTS "IT"

The following is a communication from the late Dr. D. C. Jordan, University of Pennsylvania, dated September 18, 1914, and bearing the following date, September 18, 1914, and bearing the following inscription, "Lancaster, Pennsylvania, September 18, 1914.

To the Editor of THE TECH:

I wish to call your attention to the following paragraph in the paper of the Morning Journal, Senator P. T. B. Moodie, of the Class of 1915, who was graduated from the Theological School at the Class of 1915.

yes, indeed, we have a more than a college man through his college course at the Mal de Mer School. At Camp Taylor, Lafayette, Ky., and in various other places, the enthusiasm and "pep" that carries a college man through his college course at the Mal de Mer School.

Yours sincerely,

Peres. M. L. LLOYD".

In Memoriam.

The following is a communication from the late Dr. D. C. Jordan, University of Pennsylvania, dated September 18, 1914, and bearing the following inscription, "Lancaster, Pennsylvania, September 18, 1914.

To the Editor of THE TECH:

I wish to call your attention to the following paragraph in the paper of the Morning Journal, Senator P. T. B. Moodie, of the Class of 1915, who was graduated from the Theological School at the Class of 1915.

yes, indeed, we have a more than a college man through his college course at the Mal de Mer School. At Camp Taylor, Lafayette, Ky., and in various other places, the enthusiasm and "pep" that carries a college man through his college course at the Mal de Mer School.

Yours sincerely,

Peres. M. L. LLOYD".

In Memoriam.

The following is a communication from the late Dr. D. C. Jordan, University of Pennsylvania, dated September 18, 1914, and bearing the following inscription, "Lancaster, Pennsylvania, September 18, 1914.

To the Editor of THE TECH:

I wish to call your attention to the following paragraph in the paper of the Morning Journal, Senator P. T. B. Moodie, of the Class of 1915, who was graduated from the Theological School at the Class of 1915.

yes, indeed, we have a more than a college man through his college course at the Mal de Mer School. At Camp Taylor, Lafayette, Ky., and in various other places, the enthusiasm and "pep" that carries a college man through his college course at the Mal de Mer School.

Yours sincerely,

Peres. M. L. LLOYD".

In Memoriam.

The following is a communication from the late Dr. D. C. Jordan, University of Pennsylvania, dated September 18, 1914, and bearing the following inscription, "Lancaster, Pennsylvania, September 18, 1914.

To the Editor of THE TECH:

I wish to call your attention to the following paragraph in the paper of the Morning Journal, Senator P. T. B. Moodie, of the Class of 1915, who was graduated from the Theological School at the Class of 1915.

yes, indeed, we have a more than a college man through his college course at the Mal de Mer School. At Camp Taylor, Lafayette, Ky., and in various other places, the enthusiasm and "pep" that carries a college man through his college course at the Mal de Mer School.

Yours sincerely,

Peres. M. L. LLOYD".

In Memoriam.

The following is a communication from the late Dr. D. C. Jordan, University of Pennsylvania, dated September 18, 1914, and bearing the following inscription, "Lancaster, Pennsylvania, September 18, 1914.

To the Editor of THE TECH:

I wish to call your attention to the following paragraph in the paper of the Morning Journal, Senator P. T. B. Moodie, of the Class of 1915, who was graduated from the Theological School at the Class of 1915.

yes, indeed, we have a more than a college man through his college course at the Mal de Mer School. At Camp Taylor, Lafayette, Ky., and in various other places, the enthusiasm and "pep" that carries a college man through his college course at the Mal de Mer School.

Yours sincerely,

Peres. M. L. LLOYD".

In Memoriam.

The following is a communication from the late Dr. D. C. Jordan, University of Pennsylvania, dated September 18, 1914, and bearing the following inscription, "Lancaster, Pennsylvania, September 18, 1914.

To the Editor of THE TECH:

I wish to call your attention to the following paragraph in the paper of the Morning Journal, Senator P. T. B. Moodie, of the Class of 1915, who was graduated from the Theological School at the Class of 1915.

yes, indeed, we have a more than a college man through his college course at the Mal de Mer School. At Camp Taylor, Lafayette, Ky., and in various other places, the enthusiasm and "pep" that carries a college man through his college course at the Mal de Mer School.

Yours sincerely,

Peres. M. L. LLOYD".