Rivalry between the freshmen and Sophomores is a thing of the past. Navy and Army coexist, however, more than makes up for it.

Now that cold weather has come, the Coop has installed a soda fountain. Quite appropriate. Perhaps we will be able to buy hot chocolate there next August.