M. C. BROWN KILLED WHEN WING CASSAPED

In a previous issue of THE TECH an announcement was made of the death of Lieutenant M. C. Brown '19, but at that time further particulars were obtainable. Through the kindness of the PHY Sigma Delta Fraternity, of which Lieutenant Brown was a member, we are able to publish the following further facts concerning one of our graduates, telling of his expectancies while training for the new type of student; that is to say, that the number of students now in the United States Naval Training Corps: Lieut. O. W. G. (Continued on page 36)
