The following excerpt is from the newspaper article titled "TEN MEN CHOSEN FOR O.T.C. LEFT YESTERDAY":

TEN MEN CHOSEN FOR O.T.C. LEFT YESTERDAY

S. A. T. C. Men Sent to Fortress Monroe For Heavy Artillery Training Took Surviving Ten

Kettelhut in Charge

At noon yesterday the first detachment of men to be the S. A. T. C. left on the Eastward. Their plan the Officers' Training Camp at Fortress Monroe to be followed for heavy artillery officers. They were Francis H. Kettelhut (in charge), Albert G. Buska,2 Charles W. Ayers, William D. Burdick, Martin T. Dunning, Harol1 A. Draper, Warren A. E. Riordan, Charles J. Wyman, George C. Young, and Robert L. L. Small.

On Thursday, the seventeenth, a commission examination in recruiting was held on the S. A. T. C. drill field. Of these men, twelve were chosen. They have all been raised and sworn in. Yesterday at ten o'clock they received their commissions from Capt. Kersey. These men will take the field at any time when the need arises.

Price Three Cents

TEN MEN CHOSEN FOR O.T.C. LEFT YESTERDAY

S. A. T. C. Men Sent to Fortress Monroe For Heavy Artillery Training Took Surviving Ten

Kettelhut in Charge

At noon yesterday the first detachment of men to be the S. A. T. C. left on the Eastward. Their plan the Officers' Training Camp at Fortress Monroe to be followed for heavy artillery officers. They were Francis H. Kettelhut (in charge), Albert G. Buska,2 Charles W. Ayers, William D. Burdick, Martin T. Dunning, Harol1 A. Draper, Warren A. E. Riordan, Charles J. Wyman, George C. Young, and Robert L. L. Small.

On Thursday, the seventeenth, a commission examination in recruiting was held on the S. A. T. C. drill field. Of these men, twelve were chosen. They have all been raised and sworn in. Yesterday at ten o'clock they received their commissions from Capt. Kersey. These men will take the field at any time when the need arises.

Price Three Cents

TEN MEN CHOSEN FOR O.T.C. LEFT YESTERDAY

S. A. T. C. Men Sent to Fortress Monroe For Heavy Artillery Training Took Surviving Ten

Kettelhut in Charge

At noon yesterday the first detachment of men to be the S. A. T. C. left on the Eastward. Their plan the Officers' Training Camp at Fortress Monroe to be followed for heavy artillery officers. They were Francis H. Kettelhut (in charge), Albert G. Buska,2 Charles W. Ayers, William D. Burdick, Martin T. Dunning, Harol1 A. Draper, Warren A. E. Riordan, Charles J. Wyman, George C. Young, and Robert L. L. Small.

On Thursday, the seventeenth, a commission examination in recruiting was held on the S. A. T. C. drill field. Of these men, twelve were chosen. They have all been raised and sworn in. Yesterday at ten o'clock they received their commissions from Capt. Kersey. These men will take the field at any time when the need arises.

Price Three Cents