NAVAL AVIATION STARTS FRATERNITY BANQUET

Interest in the air arm of the Navy has reached a stage of absolute espionage at the A. S. T. C. last week, when two hundred members of the aviation section gathered at the West Point Club for a banquet to celebrate the first meeting of the Naval Aviators' Association. The banquet was postponed from last month due to the storm, but the interest shown by the members made up for the delay.

MAY GIVE DANCE

Navy Unit Orchestra Planning Functions

The naval unit orchestra, which yesterday finished its last work, has already made considerable progress in the arrangements for its new series of functions. This week it will give a dance at the Officers' Mess, where among the naval aviation students many colleges and university organizations are represented. Because of these, some have been taken by various societies to attend which meetings members in other units might be interested in the orchestra. The regiment, however, has already made arrangements for the following:

NAVAL UNIT FOOTBALL TEAM LOSES TO EXETER

The naval football game with Exeter Academy last Thursday, which amounted to the final of the real season, produced an upset that had been a factor in the victory for Exeter with a score of 17 to 10. In the game, the Exeter team was at the center of the field at the beginning of the first quarter and was soon dominated by the Exeter team.

COAST ARTILLERY CORPS SCHOOL GIVES ANNUAL TROPHY TO REGISTRAR W. A. M. NOBLE

This year, the Coast Artillery Corps School awarded its annual trophy to Registrar W. A. M. Noble. The trophy is given to the person who has shown the greatest improvement in his work during the year. Noble has been a member of the Coast Artillery Corps School for the past two years and has shown a marked improvement in his work.
